

Leisure

Art and Culture

The central, cultural hotspot in Diemen is theatre De Omval. Here you can come out for drama, cabaret, film and music. Their programme is of a high standard with top of the bill cabaret performers, celebrated bands and current films. De Omval has an auditorium comprising 180 seats and an own theatre cafe.

Schuilkerk De Hoop, formerly a forbidden, concealed church, is a renowned monument. Here chamber music concerts are held in a pleasant atmosphere on a number of Sunday afternoons in spring and autumn. They are organised by the Foundation Friends of De Hoop.

Cultural life in Diemen is further enhanced by a number of outstanding organisations: the music school, several choirs, Diemer Brass Band, Kunstzin, Edog Musical Theatre, the Historical Society of Diemen and many more associations.

Diemen also has a public library (OBA) at your disposal, a subsidiary of the main library located in Amsterdam near the Central Station.

Diemen has a museum which are be visited free of charge: the Saan Museum. Here the rich history of this( primarily local) transport company comes to life with formidable historic trucks and cranes.

On different public locations in Diemen art objects scan be seen.