In general

In Diemen there are first-rate possibilities for shopping! There is a wide range of private shops but also large chain stores. There is ample parking space at the three largest shopping centers and the accessibility of the shops is good. They can also be reached easily by bus, tram or train.

In the shopping center Diemerplein the shops are open every first Sunday of the month, from 12 till 17 hours and on Fridays there is late night shopping.

All supermarkets in Diemen are open every day of the week.
